

Don't Want to Be a Healer But Want to Learn Everything Else?
Two Weekend Power Course

Over the years Dr. Meg has been asked to offer a program that offers all of the answers from our very beginning to how reality formed, how we are a part of that construct as well as how to work within the One rather than at it to manifest whatever we desire in our lives.

Learn how harmonics and energy as well as Sacred Geometry play a part in our very being. Long ago, the ancients left us everything we need to know. A map of how all things are made and work together to form reality and matter as well as communicate within that construct. How does our consciousness keep us informed about everything that is happening in creation and how does it tell creation what is happening in our experience of life? What part does our DNA really play in conjunction with our consciousness and our physical bodies? Can we really change our reality? Our lives? Our perceptions in order to live the life we really want? Oh yes we can! Find out how to use that communication system to create whatever you desire, need or want!

Want to learn to work out of body? Remote view? Travel in time? Maintain your personal internal balance as well as find the light and purpose of your soul? Everything truly is relative! Dr. Meg is offering a 2 weekend class series about all of this and more. You will leave with an entirely new perception of life and your part in all of creation. You will have an understanding of how you can never be separate from the one. Learn to be effective in every aspect of your life on the earth and other dimensionally!

This is a first time offering and does not include instruction for healing. It is not a certification class. The Power course is a full set of life tools, an intensive class that is packed full of information that is directly applicable to everything that you do!
